

Dapto High School, 2013
with poet Candy Royalle Erasure Poems

by Tara S.

traffic stay focused stay on the highway. There is an end to this mess. Step from the fear
and the fear falls
away

nothing lasts forever
 Just waiting

brains
exploding Standing in puzzled
angry bubbles of freedom
and
this moment

The lights go out. We're not quite ready

by Luke P.

traffic of my ignorance the limit
city
calm focused
and to this mess step
first day forever
fear
where the beginnings begin fear falls The connection
lasts forever
waiting
authority
disappoint
only rearranging changes
shout rebel equal
stones
ready power

by Kelsey

ignorance
limit -s
this city
stay on the highway Always. Forever.
many lives
disappeared
because nothing lasts forever.
disappointed
elders
standing in lines and dreaming
of freedom
The lights go out.

by Tannah K.

Disappearing

limit
zones
disappear

time begin

childhood
terror

dreaming

freedom
rearranging

transformed by words conversation has power.

by Tayla

ignorance
limit
disappearing
fear
creation Childhood goes voice
disappoint
terror
doubt dreaming
security
rearranging
my power

by Maddie

Disappearing ignorance limit my years
to end the fear inside
the beginning fear fills many stories with questions of life?

noise
elders
pile
ideas
dreaming
celebrating all
equal
stones
transformed by words and a conversation has power.

by Rhianna

40k highway
forever
outside beginnings

astonished connection
waiting
for
authority

disappearing disappointed strips

brains
puzzled

lockers linked

rebel
sharing
equal

old books transformed

skewer
power

by Marija

Disappearing highway of ignorance
limit
zones
focussed
forever
fear gates outside beginnings begin
creation astonished
connection
nothing lasts forever
particular tone
terror
exploding ideas
bubbles of freedom
celebration
has power

by Athena W.

Highway of my ignorance
highway
of beginnings fear
lives
forever
waiting
in the back exploding insecurity

by Bridget

ignorance
stay calm stay stay
end this mess step from school
and fall
away
at the depth what has disappeared life? It all disappears nothing lasts forever waiting
I was disappointed
we are dreaming
of freedom
we all are
transformed by words
conversation has power.

by Chloe

Always
inside
waiting
my spine
terror
rearranging
dreaming

by Emma K. M.

limit
city
stay calm
and
first
creation
to the question disappeared
just waiting
gain
terror
linked
sharing this moment
beach
stones
power

Anon poem

Disappearing
this city
 this mess
the
fear

beginnings begin